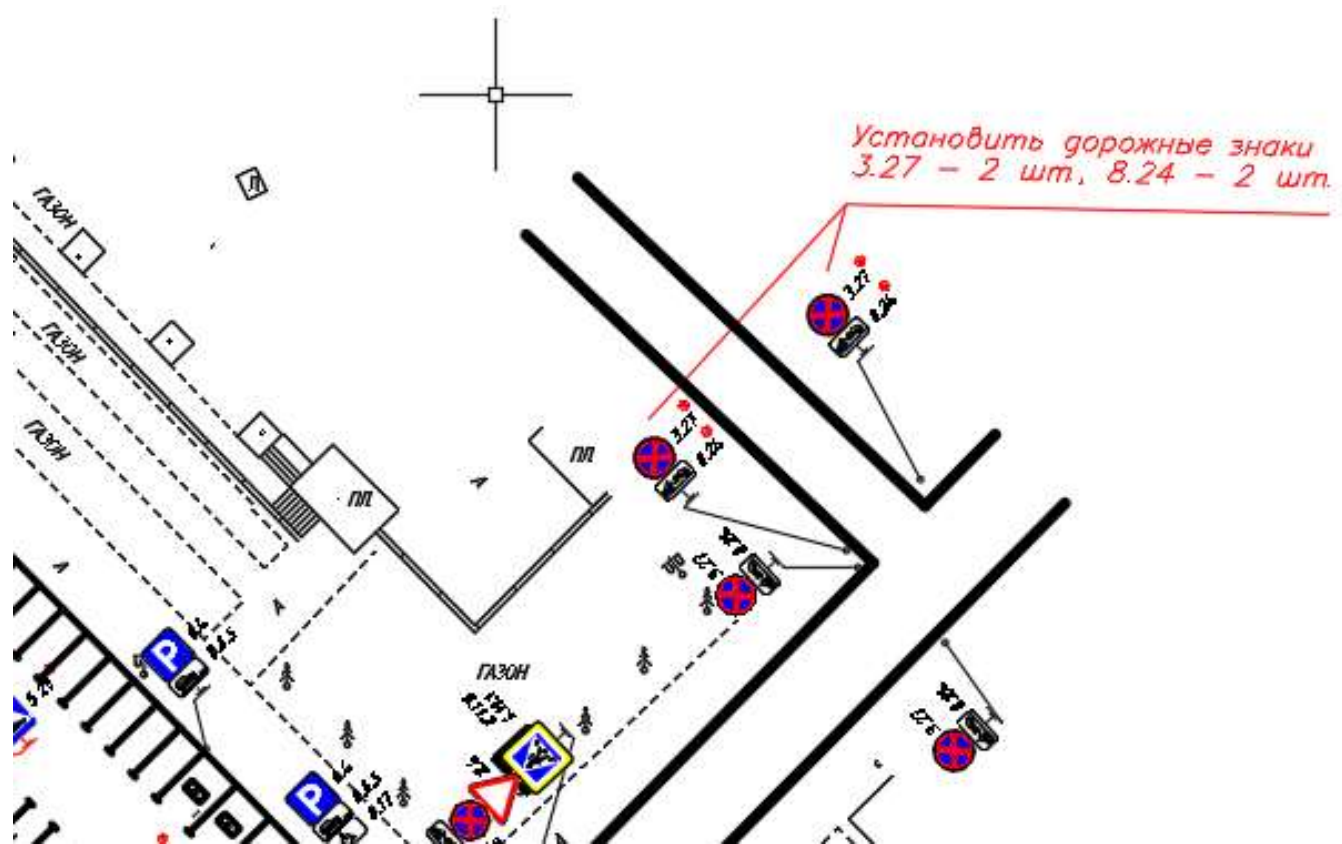

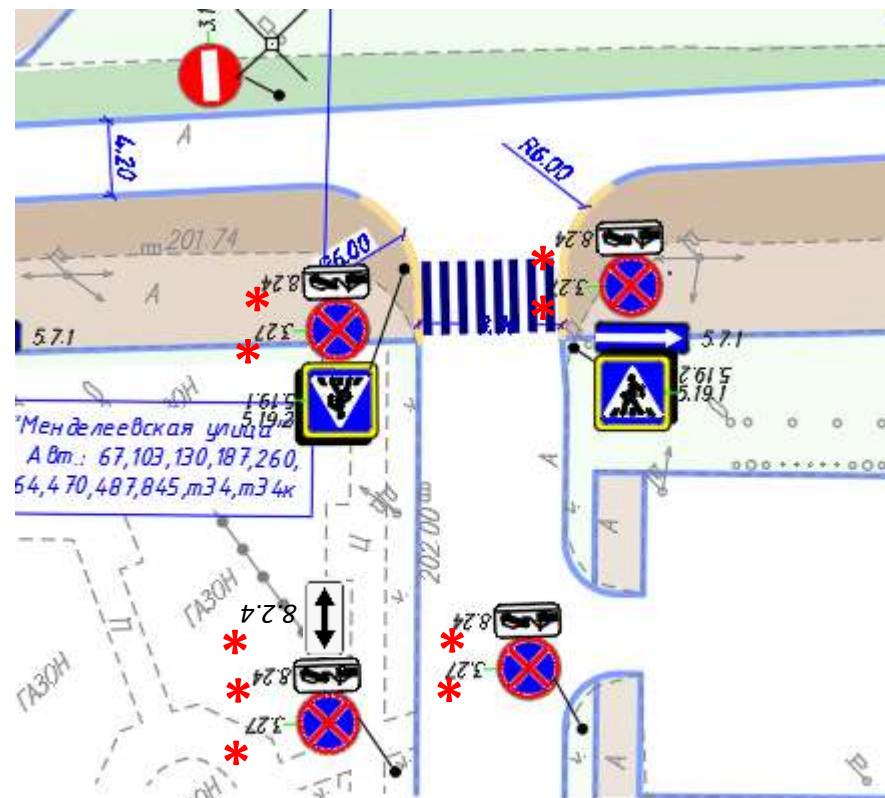

Figure 1 consists of two parts. On the left is a photograph of a street scene. A blue pedestrian crossing sign is mounted on a pole. Below it is a zebra crossing. In the background, there are parked cars and a building. On the right is a map of the same area. The map shows a road intersection with a pedestrian crossing marked by red lines and numbered 1, 2, and 3. The map also shows the surrounding area, including buildings and roads.
